

Friday Night

My dearest -

I am so lonesome for you tonight Sam dear, how I wish you were here. This is sure a fine evening for walking so Pauline & I were walking around when her beaux found her and wanted her to go to the show, then I came on home. Came from town on up home by myself in tho't of you all the way dear, wondering what you were doing tonight, etc. You said in your letter, you hoped to be with me in a few Sundays. That sounds too good to be true, but ah! I hope it is. Just when do you plan on coming out to Colo? You are surely planning on coming here first, now aren't you? If you don't ? ? ? ?

Well school is out at

last, everyone went picnicking today. Some went to the Springs, some went here and some went there. They are having the Alumni Banquet tonight. Don't think tho' many of the old one came back to it. Some of the teachers left today and the rest are going tomorrow. Two of the new teachers are going to leave for Mo tomorrow where they live in their car. Just two of the old teachers are coming back next year. Will sure seem funny for some of them have been here for four or five years.

Got a whole tablet (more or less) from Mabel the other day written on both sides, tho't I never would get it read. Sure were lots of funny things in it. Pauline and Mrs. Lurieder were with me when we read it and I tho't we would die laughing. She was asking all about U. Said the reason she hadn't written before was that she had been looking for me back. Now what do you know about that? Said she got an announcement from Eunice. I suppose you did too and forgot to mention it, didn't you? Ha!

Went to Graduating Exercises last night, the church wouldn't hardly hold all the people. I was Rester's feel as Marge was up with the gradulators. I would rather it be he or Jim tho' dear beings it can't be you. I had a date to the Senior play for a change. It was sure good, as ever saw. Suppose you have been seeing some good plays at the Hatcher Players. Sure remember the last time they were there when I was with you Dear.

Am sending you a love picture. Doesn't count to much but tho't maybe you'd like it.

Know no more at present so will bid you Good Night Dearest.

Yours with Love,

Jessie
