Dear Aot and Alice,

From the letter Mom sent me today that you had written her you seemed to be somewhat bewildered as to just what I was trying to convey in my last letter. - Just this - whatever checks you may need to write during the rest of year just sign them as you have been but with my name instead of Dad's. - Simple - isn't it and the Bank has written me that they will honor all checks signed by you so what else need I say. -

Well Alice, you mean figure going to a formal?!!! Gosh who with and what's he like.

I guess you're pretty busy - both of you, so if you don't get a chance to write me I shall probably forgive you.

Stan was over for a minute tonight. He is busy studying and working for last minute tests before graduation next month. He has accepted a position with Tennessee-Eastman at Nashville and if all goes well he will be deferred from the draft. Scout & I will sure be lost now without any men around.

Scout & I are planning to stay downtown tomorrow eve. for the Bishop's Crusade.
The evening meeting is a Youth affair. Barbara Daniels is one of the speakers.

We sent Stanley a very cute Leap year proposal in poetry and when he brought it over we nearly split before we had him convinced that we didn't send ~~them~~ it. We told him tonight tho' - Some fun. He was afraid he'd hurt the feeling of one of the other 40 girls if he told us yes tho'.

How about sending Bijington a Valentine?
We think it would be a nice surprise to have about a dozen girls write him.
What is more surprising is that he is only 23! - almost 24 on the 2nd of May! P.T. Ernest L. Bijington #39679588

I am planning to get a pair of glasses to wear to show & very close work - maybe next week.

My next blood donation is February 5.

Alvins are coming over this Sat. eve. for mahogany.

Luella is coming over the 30th. First time we've seen her since the time you were here!!

Bud is in England - which you may know - I can't remember what I've told you.

Hope all is clear in your mind now & hope you can read this

Love
Margaret
