7-8-26	Orin	Powder Explosion Injured Boys' Eyes	Oren, the little nine year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adair had the misfortune to get his eyes and face badly burned Tuesday evening while playing with some powder. The Adairs were visiting at the Sam Adair home and Oren in company with his cousin, G.S. Adair, had, like most boys at this age, become so enthused over the celebration that they were continuing the sport and a novel but dangerous manner. It seems they had got some powder and poured it into an old harness hame cap. Then they saturated a string with gasoline, placing one end of the string in the powder and striking a match to the other end, expecting the string to serve as fuse and give them time to get away before the explosion. But somehow it failed to work as planned, and in investigating or trying another experiment, the explosion occurred just as Oren had his face in the right position to receive the full force of the charge. Dr. Fullerton was called and he advised the loud to be taken at once to an eye specialist. G.W. Adair and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Adair immediately got ready and started with the boy for Des Moines. J.W. and Fred returned home this morning and report the boys' eyes not in as serious condition as it was feared which will be good news to everyone.

7-8-26	G. W.	The Red Cross Helps Tornado Victims	The local Red Cross and the Mount Ayr chapter came to the rescue of cyclone victims. At a recent meeting of the officers of the Red Cross people it was decided to use $200.00 for this home relief work and this added to the $150.00 which the Mount Ayr chapter gave, making a nice little sum. A committee composed of O.A. Watson, G.W. Adair and Stuart Hoover was appointed to place the money where it would do the most good or rather where it was most needed. A calamity of this kind so near at home gives us a good demonstration of the value of the Red Cross in the Mount Ayr chapter in the local offices have the right idea and using the funds for relief work at home in so far as it is really needed.
7-8-26	Dale	Reception	On Friday evening of last week Mr. and Mrs. H.S. Abarr gave a reception at their home south east of town in honor of the newly weds Mr. and Mrs. Quentin Abarr. Lutz, Mr. and Mrs. O. C. Hull. Mrs. Eddie Lynch, Mrs. Kate Norris, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Stephens, Mr. C. W. Preacher, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Rarick, Miss Dorothy Nichols, James Baird Jr. An appropriate poem was sent by Mrs. Julia Bailey, cousin of Mrs. Spencer. Just fifty years ago, dear friends, Just fifty years ago, You launched your ship so staunch and strong. Where rippling waters flow. The stream was calm and clear and strong. As smooth as summer seas. You drifted on and on, nor thought of coming storm or breeze. So days and months and years passed by and still the sturdy boat. Went drifting on with added crew, but ever kept afloat. For baby hands were hired now and pulling at the oars, and childish voices cheered the way to distant brighter shores. And ever standing at the helm, they bravely shared your fate, the loving daughters, noble sons, were captain, crew and mate. For you to them were all in all, through laughter, joy and tears, in heaven, on earth, they bless your name, through these 50 years. One reached the shore while yet t'was day, the voyage scarce begun, but over there beyond the shores, you'll greet your cherished son. And still the boat is drifting on through all your hopes and fears.

1-28-43	Alice	Redding School Notes	The girls basketball team won their sixth consecutive game last Thursday night when they walked away with 36 to 18 from Delphos. Those who didn't attend missed a life game, really full of action. The girls fought hard and cooperatively. The lineup at the start was – Alice Adair, Eloise Staton, Eva Saville, Dorothy Heren, Bulah Overman and Pauline Comer. Some were in the entire game and were a little tired when it was over. Dorothy Here came through with a clever little way of dropping the ball into the basket quite often. Betty Brott, ex-Redding player, was on the Delphos team, once found herself out of position and I guess in position to play in Redding's, a matter of habit.
1-28-43	Alice	SENIORS	Alice Adair was supper guest of Beula Overman Thursday night.
